The Easter Proclamation— “The Exsultet”

The Easter Vigil, celebrated on Holy Saturday night, is the greatest liturgical celebration of the year. This joyous hymn is the oldest known hymn of praise sung the night of Easter. Tracing Jesus' redemptive act back to Adam and Eve's sin ("O Happy Fault") it cries, ("...which gained for us such a Redeemer"). It concludes by describing the Easter Candle as a symbol of the invisible Lord. The candle is lit for all masses for the 50 days of Easter. It is also used throughout the year for Baptisms and Funerals.

Because this hymn is of such significance, portions of the text have been printed for you. Consider using these words as a source of prayerful reflection focused on the joy of this great feast.

The Easter Proclamation

This is the night,
when once you led our forebears, Israel's children,
from slavery in Egypt
and made them pass dry-shod through the Red Sea.

This is the night
that with a pillar of fire
banished the darkness of sin.

This is the night
that even now, throughout the world,
sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices
and from the gloom of sin,
leading them to grace.
and joining them to his holy ones.

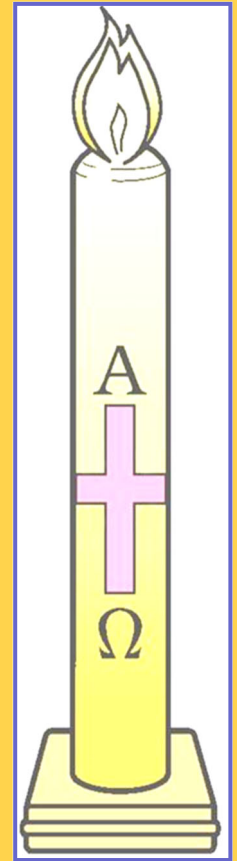

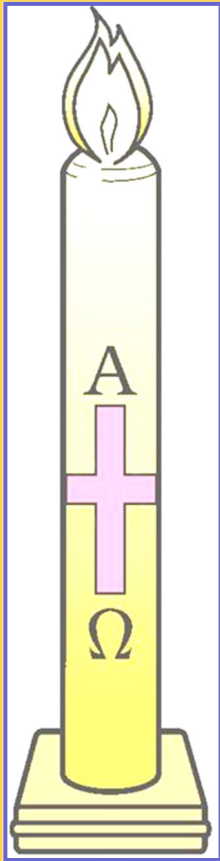

This is the night,
when Christ broke the prison-bars of death
and rose victorious from the underworld.

Our birth would have been no gain,
had we not been redeemed.
O wonder of your humble care for us!
O love, O charity beyond all telling,
to ransom a slave you gave away your Son!
O truly necessary sin of Adam,
destroyed completely by the Death of Christ!
O happy fault
that earned so great, so glorious a Redeemer!
O truly blessed night,
worthy alone to know the time and hour
when Christ rose from the underworld!

This is the night
of which it is written:
The night shall be as bright as day,
dazzling is the night for me,
and full of gladness.

The sanctifying power of this night
dispels wickedness, washes faults away,
restores innocent to the fallen, and joy to mourners,
drives out hatred, fosters concord, and brings down the mighty.

On this, your night of grace, O holy Father,
accept this candle, a solemn offering,
the work of bees and of your servants' hands,
an evening sacrifice of praise,
this gift from your most holy Church.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

*We welcome all as we celebrate this day of the Lord's Resurrection!
We join together as the IC family to share the great joy and peace of Easter. Christ has given to us the gift of new and eternal life!*

May this Holy Easter Day be a time of blessing for all gathered here this day!

We invite and welcome you to attend mass at I.C. each week as we continue to celebrate the Resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Happy Easter!

diojoliet.org/75th

All-knowing and loving God,
we give you thanks for your blessings upon the Diocese of Joliet.

For 75 years, we have been 'founded in faith,' 'called to witness,' and
'sent forth to serve.'

In thanksgiving
for your abiding presence among us,
and with gratitude for the life and service
of those who have gone before us,
we recommit ourselves
to carrying out this mission entrusted to them, to us, and to future generations.

Relying on the intercession of our patron,
St. Francis Xavier,
may our diocese continue to be a source of hope for the Church and all peoples,
now and in the years to come.

We pray this in the name of Jesus, your Son
by the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen

As part of the celebration of the National Eucharistic Revival, over the last three weekends Fr. Tom and Fr. Jeremy presented a sermon series on the Eucharist.

Week 1 — “This is My Body” — How do we know that the Eucharist is really Jesus’ Body and Blood? This homily tells the story of Chapter 6 from the Gospel of John and how Jesus himself teaches his followers about his Real Presence in the Eucharist.

Week 2 — “Do This in Memory of Me” — One of the biggest reasons why Catholics don’t always go to Mass is because “they don’t get anything out of it.” This homily explains how Mass is not so much about the fellowship, the readings, the music, the homily, or even the Eucharist. Mass is about coming face to face with the God who has saved us.

Week 3 — “Never Let Me Be Parted from You” — Before Jesus ascended into heaven, he told his disciples, “Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” The Eucharist is a foretaste of heaven, and every time we receive Holy Communion, Jesus is saying to us: “This is how I will stay close to you here on earth until I am with you forever in heaven.”

These Sunday homilies are posted on Spotify in case you would like to refer back to them or share them with someone you know. If you missed one or all of them, we encourage you to listen to these powerful messages. Three ways to access are by typing “Fr. Jeremy Leganski” in Spotify’s search bar, following the link below, or scanning the QR code.

Easter Memorial Flowers

This year, we are once again giving our parishioners the opportunity to remember their deceased family members by donating flowers in their memory. The many beautiful Easter flowers that will adorn our church and chapel can be given in memory of loved ones. A list of those remembered will be included in the bulletin at a later date. A flower envelope was included in your envelope packets. You can also fill out the form below and place it in the collection basket or return it to the Parish Office.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Second Reading: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. (Col 3:1)

Or: Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. (1 Cor 5:7)

Gospel: For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

Easter Talk: The Women of the Gospel

Immaculate Conception Parish proudly welcomes Celine Kelly
as she presents
The Women of the Gospel

In this talk, Celine will discuss the women of the Gospel who encountered Jesus, and how they were transformed by Him and followed Him all the way to the cross. He honored them by appearing first to them after His resurrection. We will discover how these women shed the light of the Gospel on our own lives, inspiring us to open our lives to the Lord allowing Him to set our hearts on fire as He did for His first disciples.

Come and discover some takeaways that can transform your lives too!

Thursday, April 4th 7pm

IC Church, 132 Arthur St, Elmhurst, IL

Celine Kelly hails from County Clare, in Ireland. There she developed a deep love for nature and a great longing for God. After hearing the Call, she gave her life to the Lord as a consecrated woman in Regnum Christi in 1976. Since then, she has been engaged in school leadership, youth and family ministry, retreats, spiritual direction and pilgrimages, in Ireland, Mexico, Canada, the United States and the Holy Land.

Christian Ministry

He is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Through the extraordinary generosity of the IC parish family, we were able to provide grocery gift cards to our food pantry clients, transitional housing families, many families from Catholic Charities and refugee families through Exodus World Services. We also prepared over 100 children's baskets.

HEARTFELT THANKS to all who assisted in this outreach: those who donated gift cards, children's toys, Easter baskets—those who helped assemble children's baskets---those who distributed baskets to our families and their children--- those who helped in any other way or prayed for the success of this program.

Special thanks to the ICGS and Religious Ed students, who donated a sundry of children's basket items, enabling us to provide baskets to children who would not ordinarily receive one.

Many thanks to our chairpersons, Noreen Cheng, Mary Milling and Maria Shannon. The successful execution of our outreach programs depends solely upon our volunteer base and the generosity of our parish family. We are grateful. May God return to you what you so generously share with others.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of Immaculate Conception Parish are Christians who worship and glorify God as a sign of our faith. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we proclaim our faith to the world through prayer, education, concern, and service to our community. By participating in the sacraments and giving of our time, talent and treasure, we help to make Christ present and share God's love in our community and the world around us.

IC Parish-Wide Lenten Outreach Project St. Mary's Mission School, Red Lake, MN
 If you were unable to return your Lenten offering for St. Mary's Mission and School last week, please drop your alms off at the Parish Administration Center this week. All checks should be made payable to Immaculate Conception, with a notation "St. Mary's Mission Donation." Thank you for helping the students at St. Mary's Mission School.

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we sincerely thank you! If we all join together, we can meet our parish's goal of $114,500. Each and every gift, regardless of size, truly matters and makes a difference. If you still plan on making your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how best you can support the CMAA this year to help those in need throughout our diocese, For the Glory of God. Pledge envelopes are still available in the church, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org

The diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

BAPTISMS: Please call for information (530-8515).

MARRIAGES: Please call Catey Cohen at least 6 months in advance (530-8991).
